PRINCETON REVIEW.

VOL. XLI.

Contents of the January Number.

PAGE

ART. I.—Agassiz on Provinces of Creation, and the Unity of the Race . . 5

ART. II.—Manual of the Foreign Missions of the Presbyterian Church . . 33

ART. III.—Christian Work in Egypt 53

ART. IV.—A Method of Teaching Religion in a College 72

ART. V.—Romanism at Rome 83

ART. VI.—Baird's History of the ew School 105

Short Notices of Recent Publications 139

Literary Intelligence 158

Contents of the April Number.

ART. I.—The Calvinistic Methodists in Wales 163

ART. II.—Some Recent Discussions on the Fundamental Principle of Morals . 176

ART. III.—Planting of the American Churches 194

ART. IV.—The Novel and Novel Reading 202

ART. V.—Ethics and Economics of Commercial Speculation 235

ART. VI.—Froude's History of England 248

ART. VII.—The Disestablishment of the Irish Church 267

ART. VIII.—Recent Developments respecting Presbyterian Reunion . . . 290

Short Notices of Recent Publications 309

Literary Intelligence 317

217003

Contents of the July Number.

PAGE

ART. I.—St. John's Gospel, its Genuineness 323

ART. II.—Memoir of the Rev. John Keble 346

ART. III.—Christian Work in Lower and Middle Egypt 360

ART. IV.—Parables of the Kingdom—Matthew XIII 382

ART. V.—The General Assembly 401

ART. VI.—Proceedings of the Late Assemblies on Re-union—By the Junior Editor 423

ART. VII.—Exposition and Defence of the Basis of Re-union—By Rev. G. W. Musgrave, D. D. 449

ART. VIII.—The New Basis of Union—By the Senior Editor 462

Notices of Recent Publications 467

Literary Intelligence 482

Contents of the October Number.

ART. I.—Morrell on Revelation and Inspiration 489

ART. II.—Christian Work in Upper Egypt 511

ART. III.—Recent Scholarship 523

ART. IV.—The Church Question 546

ART. V.—Smaller Bodies of American Presbyterians 565

ART. VI.—Recent Discussions on the Representation of Minorities . . 581

ART. VII.—Oberlin Ethics and Theology: Their Latest Exposition . . . 601

ART. VIII.—Materialism.—Physiological Psychology 615

Short Notices of Recent Publications 626

Literary Intelligence 640